The China Business Tour – Stream 2 consist of services provided by Strategic Global Pathways Pty Ltd (SGP) to participants and attendance by these participants on the Curtin China Business Tour operated by Curtin University. The reservation for the Curtin China Business Tour is made through SG, who will manage the registration and cancellation policy processes for Stream 2.

1. Booking

Registration is required by the registration deadline date (March 21) and on registration participants must pay the deposit specified to Strategic Global Pathways. Registrations made after March 21 will be accepted at Curtin’s sole discretion and may incur additional fees.

The remainder of the Tour price is payable by the date stipulated as the deadline for full payment. If a participant fails to make full payment for the Tour by the stipulated deadline, SGP and Curtin will be entitled to treat the reservation as cancelled and to impose a cancellation fee as noted below.

Cancellation by SGP

China Business Tour - Stream 2 requires ten (10) participants before the Stream 2 package is confirmed. If this group size is not achieved by the registration deadline date, SGP and Curtin are entitled to cancel all registrations for Stream 2. A full refund of all monies received will be returned to the participants of Stream 2.

Cancellation by Participants Policy

All cancellations must be made in writing to john@strategicglobalpathways.com

4. Itinerary

Every effort will be made to deliver the advertised program, however, the content of the Tour and sequence of the activities may be subject to change. Where replacement tour activities are required, they will be of the same quality and consistent with the intent of the China Business Tour. SGP and Curtin will advise participants of any changes to the itinerary as soon as practically possible.

5. Flights and Accommodation

Participants are responsible for booking and all costs connected with their international return flights to and from China in line with the Tour program. Participants are responsible for booking and all costs connected with their accommodations in China. Any accommodation booked must be within 5 km of the Hotel selected by Curtin for Stream 1 participants. Participants are solely responsible for all travel costs to and from their hotel to the designated point of pick-up and drop-off specified for the Tour program each day of the Tour.

6. Travel insurance and visas

Participants are responsible for arranging their own travel and health insurance cover for the duration of the Tour. Participants are encouraged to obtain comprehensive travel insurance policy to protect against unforeseen circumstances, such as baggage loss, flight delays and medical emergencies. SGP and Curtin take no responsibility for such unforeseen circumstances.

All participants will receive a letter of invitation and will be responsible for obtaining their own visa.

7. Mandatory Pre-departure Briefing

Participants are required to attend the mandatory pre-departure briefing held by Curtin in connection with the Tour covering important information on participant responsibilities under the charter, and safety and emergency processes. Where the Participant cannot attend the briefing, the Participant is responsible for making prior alternate arrangements to receive the information.

8. Privacy

Participants’ personal information will be used by SGP and Curtin for the administration of the China Business Tour – Stream 2 program and for contacting you in connection with services provided by SGP and Curtin that may be of interest to participants. The personal contact details of participants will not be distributed to other Tour participants, without your consent.
China Business Tour – Stream 2
Terms & Conditions

All personal information collected will be handled according to the Australian Privacy Principles and Curtin’s Privacy Statement (https://informationmanagement.curtin.edu.au/privacy/index.cfm) and SGP’s Privacy Policy (https://strategicglobalpathways.com/privacy-policy).

9. Consent to Photography
By attending the Tour, participants give permission to SGP and Curtin to use any event related photos taken during the Tour, in any media, for marketing purposes.

10. Security and Conduct Standard
All participants are required to wear appropriate dress attire throughout the China Tour, respectable to Chinese culture. By attending the 2019 Curtin Business Tour, participants agree to follow any lawful instruction provided by our staff, and to comply with the conditions of entry to all venues, hotels, airlines, transport and other suppliers.

We reserve the right to withdraw any itinerary or any reservation made and/or to decline or refuse any individual as a participant in the Tour, if it appears to us, in our absolute discretion, that such individual is likely to endanger the health or safety, or impair the comfort and enjoyment of the other participants in the Tour or impair the educational significance of the Tour for Curtin Students. Participants are encouraged to bring any dangerous or unacceptable behaviour during the Tour to the attention of our staff.

11. Limit of Liability
Without limiting any other provision of these Terms and Conditions, to the fullest extent permitted by law, SGP and Curtin shall not be responsible or assume any liability to any participant for:

- any injury, damage, loss or delay affecting any participant or their property not arising from our negligence or breach;
- any loss, damage, cost, expense or delay suffered or incurred due to circumstances beyond our reasonable control, including without limitation – actions or omissions of third party providers or other third parties, or failure by participants to follow reasonable instructions such as check-in and check-out and meeting places/times.

In no event shall we be liable for any punitive, special, indirect or consequential loss or damage, including loss of production, profit, revenue or contract or loss of or damage to goodwill or reputation.
